TELEGRAPH SUPERINTENDENT SHOT.

Commotion in Central District.

SEARCH OF PEDESTRIANS

A sensational shooting affair occurred in the business district of the Colony just about 1 p.m. today. Mr. Shum Teze-leung, Superintendent of the Chinese Telegraph Administration in Hongkong, being badly wounded by a man who fired at him with a revolver.

The Chinese Telegraph office is situated in the same building as the Eastern Extension Telegraph office on the Praya, next to Messrs. Butterfield and Swire. It appears that Mr. Shum had just left his office and was entering his motor-car in the lane between the Telegraph office and Messrs. Butterfield and Swire's when two or three men (the exact number is in doubt) rushed forward and one of them fired a shot which entered Mr. Shum's back.

The victim, as it so happened, was also armed and he turned on his assailants and fired three shots at them as they ran away, but it is not known whether any of these hit the escaping men. At any rate, all three managed to get away. Mr. Shum appears to have fared rather high, as there are two bullet marks some distance up the wall near the spot where the outrage took place.

Later, Mr. Shum was removed to the Government Civil Hospital by ambulance. It is believed that his wound is a rather serious one.

Immediately on news of the outrage reaching the police headquarters, large numbers of uniformed and plain-clothes police were rushed down into the city, and instructions were given for a rigorous search to be made of all Chinese moving about in the central district. Policemen were stationed at the principal points in the locality of the outrage and at other spots some distance away, and as Chinese pedestrians moved past they were thoroughly searched for arms, as also were passengers on the tramps and ferries.

As to the motive for the crime, it is believed to be political in character. Mr. Shum, who has been Superintendent of the Chinese Telegraphs in Hongkong for about a year, is an appointee of the Peking Government. Some two months ago, it appears that Dr. Sun Yat-sen sent down an official to Hongkong to take charge of the office, and this official met Mr. Shum and discussed the position with him. The latter stated that he could not give up office in favour of Dr. Sun's nominee, as he had received his appointment from Peking, but that if he had orders from the Peking Government he would be quite willing to hand over the position to a new official. It is believed that the crime has some connection with these events.

MORE POLICE FOR KOWLOON.

Force to be Strengthened.

NEW ARRIVALS FROM WEI-HAI-WEI.

The Hon. Mr. E. D. C. Wolff, Captain Superintendent of Police, arrived back in the Colony on Saturday, and with him came 65 Northern Chinese police recruited in Wei-Hai-Wei, these being brought down in charge of Sergeant Dick.

Seen this morning on the subject by a Telegraph representative Mr. P. J. Wodehouse, acting C.S.P., stated that the new arrivals have been sent out of the New Territories, relieving Indian and Chinese Police stationed there.

"This means that the men thus relieved are available for distribution in the Hongkong and Kowloon areas," continued Mr. Wodehouse.

Questioned on the need for increased police protection for Kowloon, Mr. Wodehouse explained that, while a considerable percentage of available men brought in from the New Territories would be posted to Kowloon, Yau-mat and district, it was impossible to give effect to plans already arranged for a considerable number of extra police, on account of the present lack of accommodation.

New stations were in course of construction at Yau-mat and Mongkok, but the main reinforcement could not be carried out until the new quarters were ready. At present there is a temporary station at Mongkok at the end of Coronation Road, but when the new station is available, this will be closed.

The station at Yau-mat will be very much larger than the present one, and although the figures were not at the moment available, Mr. Wodehouse stated that considerably more men would be housed there.

The new buildings should be ready for occupation about the end of September.

Mr. Wodehouse added that, in addition to the extra Indian and Chinese police who will be allotted to Kowloon, arrangements will also be made for several more European police to be stationed on the peninsula.

FRENCH NATIONAL DAY.

Reception at Local Consulate.

The local celebration of the French National Holiday of July 14th took the form of a reception given by the French Consul General, M. Kremer, at his residence on Saturday at noon. The guests in honour of the Republic, its President and Premier were enthusiastically welcomed to the accompaniment of the "Marseillaise." Amongst those who called were Captain Robert Neville, Royal Marines (U.S.A.); Mr. Seichi Takahashi (Japan); Signor Giuseppe Biondelli (Italy); Senhor Corveira de Albuquerque e Castro (Portugal); Mr. L. P. J. de Decker (Netherlands); Mr. Karsten Larsen (Denmark); Mr. J. T. Barram (Siam); the Consul and Vice Consul for Peru; Mr. Fr. Murer (Norway); representatives of other countries and the following members of the community: Sir Robert Ho Tung; Mr. Edward Ho Tung; Rev. Fr. Robert; Rev. Fr. Neval; Rev. Bro. Aymar; Dr. A. V. Vadon; Messrs. R. Rodenfusser; A. L. Seibert; G. Guiden Lavallee; A. Borbier; Dr. S. S. Strahan; Mr. A. L. Shields; and practically all the members of the French community.

TEACHING OF PORTUGUESE.

A Challenge to "Foreigner."

We have received the following letters for publication.

Sir,—When you did me the favour of inserting my long correspondence in your issue of the 11th instant, I did not expect that in such a short interval I would feel myself compelled to ask again the hospitality of your valuable columns.

I would be betraying my character and my devoted love for glorious Portugal were I to waver to join my compatriots who, with genuinely Portuguese uprightness, are defending the Portuguese community, willfully insulted by your correspondent "Foreigner."

Before proceeding further I must ask you to accept an expression of my respect and deep esteem for acquainting your correspondent "Foreigner" with the noble and eminently useful performance played by Portugal in the past in this part of the world.

You have done no favour to the Portuguese community; you have simply exposed truthfully historical facts, showing that you are a conscientious and worthy Editor. After this, common sense demands that "Foreigner" in chastened mood should come forward and apologize to the Portuguese community, but I doubt that he will adopt this course, since he has been airing academic views and posing himself as a born sage. He will, on the contrary, continue to be pyrrhonic, and again and again pose himself as the discoverer of the usefulness of English language in this British Colony!

He will further repeat the same old story of his that the Portuguese language cannot be the mother tongue to the local Portuguese, etc. Therefore, not to tire your readers further, many of whom may not be interested in this discussion, but at the same time wishing to throw out the matter once for all, I hereby formally challenge your correspondent "Foreigner" to a public debate in the City Hall or any other convenient place on the following subjects:—

1.—Is Portuguese (pure) language the mother tongue of those who in this Colony take pride in calling themselves Portuguese?

2.—Whether or not the knowledge of Portuguese is useful to the local Portuguese.

"Foreigner" would, of course, stand for negative, versus "Victor Soriano" positive.

I will not mind if I come out defeated. The debate would at least serve to prove that a Portuguese prefers rather to be killed than twisted.

This challenge stands good for acceptance for two days from this date, and the debate to take place within the following three days.

I trust, and the interested readers may rest assured, that the worthy Editor of the Hongkong Telegraph will ere long be able to acquaint them with the true personalities of "Foreigner" and "Victor Soriano." Further details of the meeting could be arranged by representatives of the contestants.

Thanking you,
Yours etc.
VICTOR SORIANO.

The Value of Portuguese.

Sir,—Having read "Foreigner's" two letters published in your valuable paper, I will begin by telling him that a man without patriotism cannot be a man. His sole idea being to ridicule the Portuguese, without any reason, I must recommend him to apply to one like him, Dr. Sun Yat-sen, for a post in the Board of Education of Canton, then he could argue that English and Chinese should be the only languages to be studied in China.

In my opinion, the Board of Education, which discussed whether Portuguese students in Hongkong should take up French or Portuguese, should accept without any further discussion the decision of the Portuguese community.

Let me explain now why the Portuguese language for Portuguese boys and girls is far more useful than the French. By reading Portuguese books and newspapers, they would always keep that strong friendship which is necessary for the good maintenance here of the Anglo-Portuguese Alliance. So much for the political usefulness of the Portuguese language. As to its commercial value, I would say that the business which can be done between Hongkong and France cannot amount to what can be done with South America. Portuguese clerks, knowing well their language, could understand without any difficulty the letters in Spanish, which, together with those written in Portuguese, are the only ones received from South America.

A question to "Foreigner":—How can some of the Portuguese boys in the Club Lusitano read Portuguese books or newspapers, when they do not possess the required knowledge of the language? To be able to do that, they must have "Foreigner's" brains.

If Portuguese boys and girls cannot speak as "Foreigner" asserts, pure Portuguese, they should be allowed to learn their own language. In this century of progress, this is the proper reasoning of a thinking man.

To conclude—I was informed that every non-Portuguese firm in Hongkong has been more at a loss to translate Portuguese than French.

Thanking you for your kindness in publishing this letter, Yours etc. L.

Hongkong, July 16, 1923.

Another Invitation.

Sir,—I thank you for what you have written about the Portuguese community on Saturday last.

Certainly the Portuguese are very proud of their forefathers who have risked their lives in old days, crossing three tormentous seas in small sailing vessels for eight to ten months to bring civilization to India, China and Japan.

I do not like to discuss matters which only concern the Portuguese community, but I cannot sit quiet after what a supposed "Foreigner" has written, unnecessarily casting a slur on the Portuguese community. I hope that after he has read this letter he will come forward and unveil his mask.

I will be at his disposal any day after 5.30 p.m. to discuss with him, and at the same time show him how useful is the Portuguese language to the Portuguese community before learning any foreign language.

Now, Mr. "Foreigner," will you unveil your mask and come forward for a discussion with me? If you do not dare to do so, then I will call you the biggest coward under the sun.

I hope this will be my first and last letter to the Press, as I do not like to bother your other readers with matters which only concern the Portuguese community.

Yours etc.
I. M. DA COSTA.

Kowloon, July 16, 1923.

An Industrious Race.

Sir,—As I feel that someone ought to come to the assistance of "Foreigner," who, in this "language" argument, seems to be the only person "gifted with common-sense and intelligence, I hope you will spare me a small space in your valuable paper, wherein to express my views on the subject.

But first of all, why is it that the local Portuguese are so hypersensitive at the mere mention of the word "nationality" when made in reference to themselves, finding in every expression of opinion contrary to their own a fancied insult, where none is intended?

After all, in their claim to be Portuguese, they are but clinging to a misty tradition with which they seek to identify themselves by the use of high-sounding family names and little else. It is true, without doubt, that the first owners of such names as they bear, were Portuguese, but, since the sixteenth century, their genealogical tree has so variously been grafted, that the parent stem has almost vanished in the process. For more than 300 years they have intermarried with various eastern races, so that to-day very little trace is observable of their original Portuguese ancestry.

This is not their fault; neither need it be looked upon as a misfortune and in any case they have nothing to be ashamed of. Why should they? They become respected citizens wherever they settle and are recognised throughout the East as a fruitful, industrious and law-abiding people. They have of necessity been compelled to leave their original habitat, Macao, and here in this Colony generations of them have lived and died, content to build their homes and rear their families under the protection of the British flag.

Why, therefore, all this fuss about learning pure Portuguese? It is astonishing that they should be suddenly seized with the craze—for craze it is—to learn a language, which, when acquired, will be of as much practical value to them as will the acquisition of Erse be to the modern Irishman. They are living in a British Colony where only two languages are of paramount value—English and Chinese—and where a knowledge of pure Portuguese is of as much necessity as is ice-cream at the North Pole!

I therefore advise "Um Portuguez," "G.C.C.V." and other misguided persons that, instead of writing to this paper, they candidly ask themselves this question: "Will a knowledge of pure Portuguese be an asset of practical value in building up the future careers of our sons and daughters?"

Let them ponder this question wholeheartedly and unbiased and if they are true to themselves they can find but one answer and that is:—No.

COSMOPOLITAN.

Hongkong, July 15, 1923.

A Laughing Stock.

Sir,—I am thoroughly disgusted with all the erroneous information given to you, Sir, as well as the Hongkong public by the abusive correspondent described under the cowardly "nom de plume," "Foreigner." Furthermore, I am fully prepared to correctly answer all his foolish questions in their exact order as published in your publication.

(1) I quite admit the absolute necessity of learning at bed rock the English language which is by far the most useful dialect spoken throughout the British dominions beyond the seas. It should be taught not only to Portuguese youngsters, but to everybody else residing in a British colony like Hongkong, but this silly query put and mentioned by the insolent "Foreigner," is entirely, wholly and completely, outside of the dispute or discussion.

(2) The learning of the Portuguese language, however, has always been found very handy in Hongkong for namely:—(a) In all local firms when directly belonging to Portuguese proprietors, or when indirectly managed by Portuguese advisers, and such organizations, no doubt, are well represented in the commercial activities and business interests of Hongkong. (b) It has invariably been discovered very useful, as well as most interesting, to hear the Portuguese language being correctly spoken in the home, at the club or at social gatherings, and in fact wherever the Portuguese community are harmoniously congregated anywhere in numbers. (c) Our trade carried on with Portugal and the Portuguese possessions beyond the seas, has nothing at all to do with the subject under discussion, because this confidential question, concerns only the Portuguese authorities, the Portuguese government as well as the Portuguese people, who are not yet responsible to every interfering "Foreigner." (d) Moreover, the Portuguese youngsters certainly also derives a great deal of benefit from the Portuguese language in church, as the writer himself can personally prove and testify in his own case, by attending the 8.30 a.m. mass every Sunday in the Cathedral of the ALLEGED INTIMIDATION.

Action by Secretary for Chinese Affairs.

Intimidation is alleged to have been used by six men now arraigned on a charge of assaulting two men whom they met at Cat-chick Street on the 13th instant. The assault is said to have arisen from a refusal by the two complainants to join the Waiters' Guild of which the six men charged are members.

Divisional Inspector Caygill who had the case first in hand, was not satisfied with the dispositions and refused to charge the six men when they were brought to the Station subsequent to the alleged assault. The two complainants, however, brought their case before the Secretary for Chinese Affairs who communicated with the Police Department, with the result that an order later came from the C.S.P. for the re-arrest of the six men. The case was remanded when brought before Mr. J. R. Wood at the Police Court this morning. Mr. R. E. A. Webster appeared on behalf of the complainants and Mr. McCullum was for the defence.

SINGAPORE NAVAL BASE.

Work Commenced on Aerodrome.

(Our Own Correspondent.)

Singapore, July 14.

Regarding the Colony's gift of sites for a naval base and aerodrome, I understand the proposal to make this gift has been under consideration for some time. The local Government had already spent $80,000 on the pier ground on which work commenced over a year ago though no one anticipated the reason local. The press generally supports the decision, but demands that the Government take the people into its confidence and publish the estimates.

CHINESE POLITICS.

Shanghai, July 15.—Members of Parliament met yesterday at the Hupai Guild and issued two manifestoes to the Diplomatic Corps and the people, signed by 411 members of Parliament.

The first manifesto declares that all mandates and all communications to the Powers after 14th June are null and void, and requests the Corps to refrain from releasing the Salt and Customs surplus until a formal Government is established.

The second manifesto reemphasizes the perilous condition of the nation and promises shortly to enact the constitution.—Reuter

Tokyo, July 13.—It is reported that a loan of Yen 8,000,000, covering arrears of interest on the former Manchurian-Mongolian-Shantung Railway Loan, has been arranged between the Peking Government and the Industrial Bank of Japan, the Bank of Chosen and the Bank of Taiwan.—Reuter.

TYPHOID IN HONGKONG.

Dr. Koch Seeks Information.

At to-morrow's Meeting of the Sanitary Board there will be submitted letters from the Government relative to the proposed by-laws regarding animals in the Colony, and the erection of conveniences in new houses in Nathan Road, Kowloon.

Dr. W. V. M. Koch, purveyor to notice, will ask:—Will the Head of the Sanitary Department kindly state:

- How many cases of Typhoid Fever and of Paratyphoid Fever have been notified week by week during the present year, classified according to nationality?
- How many of these cases have been imported and how many of local origin?
- In the cases occurring locally has it been possible to trace the source of infection? If so, will he state such source?
- Has there been an increase in the number of local cases compared with former years?

YING WAH COLLEGE.

Need of New Premises.

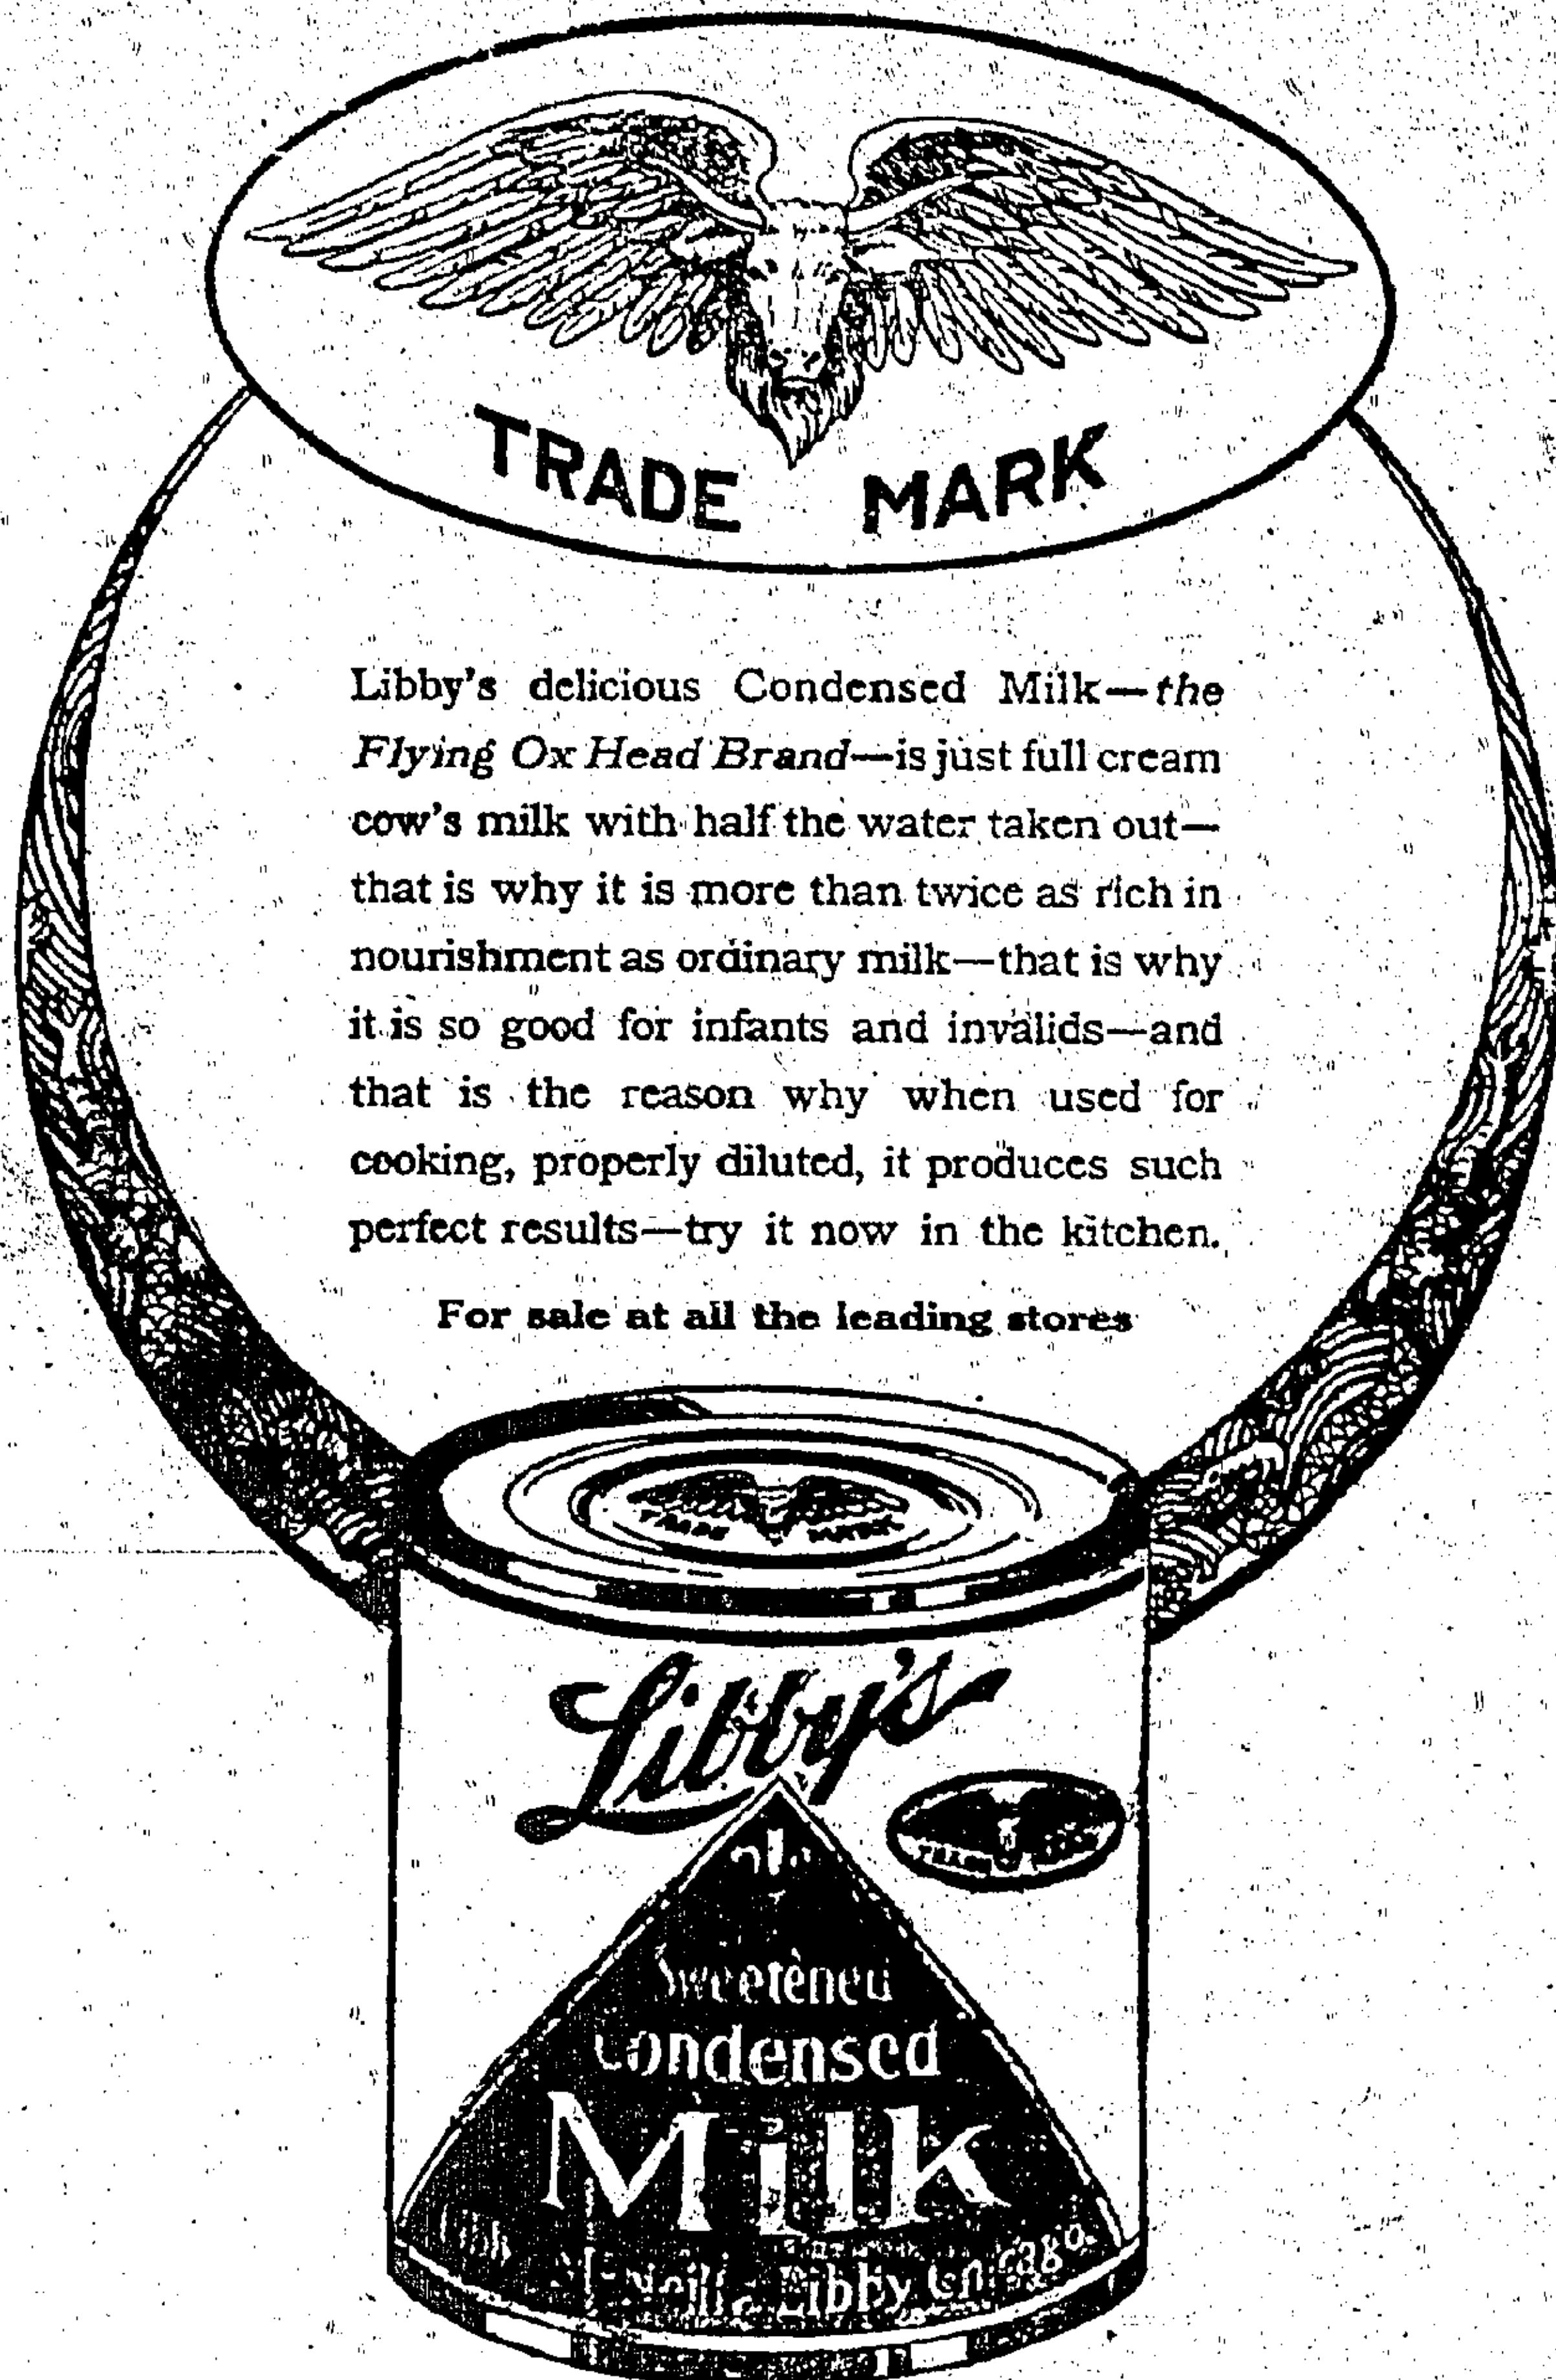

The first annual dinner of the Ying Wah College Old Boys' Association took place on Saturday night and was attended by a large number of past pupils and a few guests. The College Hall in which the function was held, was lavishly decorated with flowers and pots of plants. Mr. Tsang Fook-cho presided.

In a neat little speech in Chinese, Mr. Wong Kwok-shuen, honorary President of the Association, proposed the continued prosperity of the Ying Wah College. The toast was enthusiastically honoured.

Mr. L. G. Phillips, the Headmaster, after expressing his thanks to Mr. Wong for his good wishes, said all those present knew there was more in the College than met the eye. Anyone seeing the College without knowing something of its past history might will be disappointed. The playground was small, the premises were cramped and obviously, the building was a private house converted into a school. But the College had a glorious past and he hoped it would also have a glorious future. Commencing with a small beginning, facing all kinds of obstacles and disappointments, and moved from place to place in search of a permanent home, the School had steadily grown, thanks to the untiring and well-directed efforts of the late Mr. Hughes. Ying Wah College was different from many other schools. While education and discipline were matters of great importance, the aim of the school was not merely to turn out well educated men—there were many well educated men who were nothing but rogues—but the aim was also to turn out men of fine character. In the school there were many teachers who were not merely working for the salary that they earned, but also because they were trying to make some contribution to the progress of the world. They were making a gift of their lives to China and in this way they were striving to achieve the aim of the school—to build up character. He did not mean that in this respect Ying Wah College had the monopoly. There were other schools with the same aim, but such institutions were few and far between. The College was unique in one respect, it was entirely managed by the Chinese Christian Church with the help of the London Missionary Society.

Mr. Phillips said the School Committee was faced with a serious difficulty. They realized that the school premises were not what they should be: they did not even belong to them. In view of this, the Committee was doing their best to find suitable accommodation for the school. Now that the Old Boys' Association had been formed, the prospects of the school were much brighter. The Association could render valuable assistance to the Committee in solving their problem. (Applause)

The Chairman said he desired to speak briefly on the organization of the Old Boys' Association. Several years ago, the late Mr. Hughes, when he was headmaster of the Ying Wah College, conceived the idea of forming an 'old boys' association. So enthusiastic was Mr. Hughes that he had often invited him and others to dinner to discuss the project. Unfortunately the time was not ripe then and, in spite of his keen interest and indefatigable vigour, he did not live to see the formation of the Association. After the death of Mr. Hughes, Mrs. Hughes wrote to all Ying Wah College students, asking them to form the association as soon as possible, to fulfil her husband's wishes. Eventually the association was formed. Its object was to band together all past pupils. So far 57 members had enrolled.

Libby's delicious Condensed Milk—the Flying Ox Head Brand—is just full cream cow's milk with half the water taken out—that is why it is more than twice as rich in nourishment as ordinary milk—that is why it is so good for infants and invalids—and that is the reason why when used for cooking, properly diluted, it produces such perfect results—try it now in the kitchen.

For sale at all the leading stores

Though the number seemed small, yet the percentage was high, as Ying Wah College itself was comparatively young and old boys were not many. The membership drive was still going on and he hoped the present membership would be considerably increased in the near future. In this connection, he would like to thank the headmaster who had kindly promised his help in asking all those leaving the school to join the Association. The Chairman proposed the health of the guests and concluded with an appeal for financial assistance for the Association to all its supporters.

The Rev. Dr. T. W. Pearce suitably replied for the guests. The gathering broke up after a flashlight photo of the party had been taken.

LAWN BOWLS.

Saturday's League Results.

The Police were rather badly beaten by the Kowloon Bowling Green Club on Saturday and dropped to fifth place in the League table. The closest risk was that in which the players were skipped respectively by Edwards and J. Clark, the latter obtaining the narrow margin of three points. On the other two risks the Police went down by ten points in each case.

Kowloon Dock crossed the water and met Civil Service at the Valley. They obtained the biggest win of the day, defeating their opponents on all risks. The Dock team still lead in the Championship fight.

Craigengower gave Taihook No. 2 a bit of a shock, the latter just getting home. Fortunately, Wallace, the Colony's singles champion, was in his best form and with his risk colleagues he secured the Taihook men the points.

R.C.C. had to acknowledge defeat by Taihook No. 1, the difference in the scores being 22 points.

Below we give details of Saturday's matches.

The I.R.C. Tournament.

In the final of the Singles Championship of the I.R.C. tournament, S.A. Rumjahn met and defeated his brother, O.
Rumjahn, in three straight sets 6-1; 6-0; 6-0, giving away only five games in all. This is the second occasion that the two brothers have been opposed to each other this year, the first being the semi-final at the H.K.C.C. tournament when S.A. lost by three sets to one. They are
"quits" now.

In entering the final, S.A.
Rumjahn defeated his uncle, D.
Rumjahn, 6-2; 6-1; 7-5; and S.A. small 6-0; 7-2; 9-7. O. Rumjahn had a harder path, but got over such exponents as S.H. Ismail 3-6; 8-6; 6-4; and H.D.
Rumjahn 6-2; 6-2; 6-1, after a replay. Both drew hives in the first round.

The match was played off some time ago when S.A. Rumjahn won the first two sets 6-1; 6-0 and in the third set was down by two games to three, rain intervening.
Under the existing rules the match had to be resumed,
much to the regret of the brothers,
as no arrangement was made prior to starting, and yesterday play continued. O. Rumjahn took the opening game, thereby increasing his lead to 4-2, but S.A. took the next four and the match.

S.A. Rumjahn, who was last year's runner-up, now meets his cousin, A.H. Rumjahn, in the challenge round. A very good and fast game ought to result.

League Matches.

In the "B" Division of the League, the Craigengower "B" team put up a surprisingly good fight on the Indian Recreation Club ground, being beaten by the narrow margin of nine games.
The scores were:—C. Ismail and
J. Akker beat Abbas and W.
Zimmerman 9-2; lost to Leonard and Brown 5-6; lost to Howard and Zimmerman 4-7. S.A. Hussain and A.L. Rumjahn beat Abbas and W. Zimmerman 6-5; beat Leonard and Brown 7-4; beat Howard and Zimmerman 7-4. S.A.
Hamid and D. Rumjahn lost to Abbas and W. Zimmerman 5-6; beat Leonard and Brown 6-5; lost to Howard and Zimmerman 5-6.

At Kowloon, in the "B"
Division of the League, Queen's College visited the Netherlands T.C. and secured an overwhelming victory, winning by 82 games to 17. Scores:—Kay and Madar beat Wavermak and Endart 11-0; beat Myldekar and Groot 11-0; beat Conrad and Woutman 9-2; lost to Conrad and Woutman 5-6. Choi Ping-sum and Choi Ping-fun beat Haverkamp and Endart 11-0; beat Myldekar and Groot 10-1; beat Conrad and Woutman 7-4.

Hong Doubles.

The Hong Doubles tournament
in connection with the H.K.C.C. has reached a very interesting stage and the semi-finals are down for decision to-day. So far the matches have not been well attended, but to-day's contests should be well worth watching.

F.A. Redmond and L. Forster are to play G.W. Sewell and A.
D. Humphreys. The latter are favourites, but the other pair can give a good account of themselves.
This game will be played on the
No. 1 court.

The other match, St. G. R.
Clark and V. Grayburn v.
Commodore Grace and Worthington, should be a fine tie. All four are playing well, Clark especially.
The Navy men are favourites.
This match will be played on the stand court. Both games being at 5.15 p.m.

LOCAL BASEBALL

Hongkong Defeats Canton Americans.

Great interest was centred in the game between the Hongkong Baseball Club and the Canton
All-American team, played at Happy Valley on Saturday. There was a big attendance of spectators and a very close match resulted in Hongkong winning by 7 to 4.

In the opening innings, a home run was made by Dome for Hongkong, this being one of the features of the game. Another cause for comment was the splendid all-round work of Bonzo of the Canton team, as also was the twirling of Heinrich, the Canton pitcher.

The Hongkong team showed up well and satisfied their supporters by their good display.

A return match is to be played at Canton on August Bank Hol-day, when another keen contest is expected.

"JENKIN ON CARDIAC WEAKNESS."

Judge in Humorous Vein.

The excoitrix of the will of a lime manufacturer (deceased) brought an action against the nephew and a brother of the testator, in the Supreme Court, before the Chief Justice, this morning, claiming probate.

The defendants did not appear,
and Mr. G. C. Alabaster, K. C.
(instructed by Messrs. G. E. Hall & Button) said he understood that one of them was dead.

Mr. Alabaster explained that testator died in March, 1922, and the will was made in February of that year. Counsel mentioned that a defence had been filed, in which the defendants claimed want of capacity on the part of testator.

His Lordship said if the defendants were not in Court to support their allegations, the Court was not going to investigate them.
"It would have been very interesting to have heard Mr. Jenkin on cardiac weakness and ballunciations and so on," his Lordship added, "but as his client does not wish to pursue the matter, there is an end of it."

Mr. Alabaster proved his case, at the conclusion of which his Lordship granted probate.

CRIME AND ACCIDENTS.

The Week-End List.

West Point Police Station
reports that at 9.30 last night, four men, armed with revolvers, broke into No. 8 Koshing Street, first floor, occupied by a medicine dealer, and decamped with $1,000 in banknotes and $10 in subsidiary coins.

An old Chinese woman fell from a tramcar near the Central Market yesterday and had to be taken to the Government Civil Hospital suffering from a wound in the head.

An eight-year-old Chinese boy was knocked down by a truck on the Praya East yesterday. In falling, one wheel of the truck passed over his left leg and crushed it. He was taken to the Government Civil Hospital.

A Chinese stonebreaker, working on the hillside behind Wongneicheung Village, was struck by a falling boulder yesterday and had his leg severely crushed. Before assistance could be brought he bled to death and his remains were removed to the Mortuary.

Sixty cents were all they could find in the purse of a man whom a gang of highway robbers waylaid at the Junction of Taipo and Cheungshawan Roads during the week-end. So enraged were they at this poor result that they beheaded the man before finally letting him go.

TO-DAY'S MISCELLANY.

Sir Hall Caine both praised the "pictures" and prophesied on their account at an Associated
First National Pictures banquet.
The praise was to the effect that the cinema had often supplanted the publichouse, sometimes the unappreciated theatre, even the neglected churches; that it had broken down the barriers of language and torn aside the veil which prevents one half the world knowing how the other half lives. With these or some of these contentions most people will agree. The prophecies were rather more difficult to be unanimous on. Sir Hall Caine believes that in the future no electrical campaign will be fought without the film; that it will not be much longer a stranger as an instrument in the Courts of Justice; that it is destined to contribute greatly to the cause of peace.

The Telegraph.

HONGKONG, 16th July, 1923.

SOUTH CHINA LAWLESS- NESS.

The present lawless state of China, when scarcely a day passes without some fresh illustration of the inability of constituted authority to maintain peace and order in the country, is causing strong representations to be made by British Chambers of Commerce in the East to the Home Government. Shanghai is taking the lead in this respect, and other Chambers are supporting the representations, feeling that the time has come when definite action by the Powers should be taken in order to safeguard foreign life and property.
The Hongkong Chamber, as will have been seen by the statement just issued, is cordially supporting the steps now being taken.

The questions of disbandment of Chinese troops, under foreign supervision, and the stationing of international garrisons at certain of the Treaty ports, raise difficult problems, and we are glad to see that both the Hongkong and Canton Chambers realise that point. So far as South China is concerned, it appears to us that these two Chambers have come to a wise decision in concentrating attention on the West River and the Canton Delta. It is here that serious piracies have taken place and considerable interference caused to foreign trading.
We therefore strongly support the plan that the British naval patrol in these waters should be materially increased. How this can be done is indicated in the suggestion that a sloop should be stationed at Canton and the gunboats thus be released for patrol work, the flotilla to be increased by the commissioning of H.M.S. Moth, which is now held in reserve. We presume that this boat is not in active commission as a result of the Washington decisions. If that is so, then the circumstances in our opinion call for a variation of the agreement then made. Indeed, it is a striking commentary on the premature nature of some of the Washington decisions regarding China that, so soon after the Conference, the country should fall into such a state of utter chaos. Recent events must certainly have the effect of postponing some of the tentative plans mapped out in regard to China at that Conference.

Not only for the prevention of piracies, but also in order to help foreign trade, is the strengthening of the West River patrol essential. For some time now, that waterway has been closed to shipping because the rival military factions are engaged in operations. This Colony is, as a consequence, deprived of necessary commodities, whilst the foreign populations in West River ports are denied ice and meat destined for them from Hongkong. This isolation of Treaty ports, this interference with legitimate trade, has been an intermittent feature of conditions in South China for many months now. Peace and normality have been the exception to prevalent conditions, and the process is always repeating itself, because the Chinese military victors of to-day are the vanquished of to-morrow. It is high time for foreign action were taken to guard the trade routes. The policy of taking these things lying down has proved a failure.

Castle Peak Road.

The recent subsidence on the coastal road to Castle Peak has come at a very awkward time of the year—right in the midst of the bathing season. The result is that it is now practically impossible for parties to motor out to the popular beach for half a day, as they have to take the long route via Fanling, a distance of over forty miles, compared with eighteen miles via Lai-chikok.
The Telegraph was informed a few days ago that it will take fully six weeks to construct the necessary retaining wall at the spot where the damage has been done, but we have heard it whispered that it will be quite three months before the road is again open to traffic. If this is so, no more afternoon bathing picnics to Castle Peak will be possible this season.
Evidently the subsidence is a serious one, but we do hope that,
for the sake of the public, the repair work will be carried out with the utmost speed possible. A big gang of workers should be put on the job and every effort made to reopen the road to the public within the next few weeks. One suggestion made is that whilst the work is proceeding, it might be possible to arrange some temporary crossing by which cars could slowly pass the danger spot. We do not know whether this is feasible, but we pass the idea on to the authorities concerned, in the hope that something may be done to shorten the period during which traffic over the road is suspended.

EXCHANGE RATES.

A Useful Diagram for Business Men.

We have received from the South China Morning Post, Ltd., the publishers, a copy of a diagram of exchange rates by Mr. M. J. B. Montargis, the exchange broker, which should prove of the utmost value to business men.

The diagram is so arranged that it gives at a glance, without any calculation, one of the three following elements when two others are given:—(a) Hongkong/London rate; (b) Sterling rate (cross rate on London) in New York, Paris, Shanghai, Japan, Singapore, Java, India;
(c) Hong-kong/New York Paris, etc., parity. The lines on this diagram have been constructed with such mathematical approximation that the answer given shows at a glance if any exchange operation pays or not. It also shows clearly the influence of the variations of any of the three rates on one of the two others, a very convenient indication in these days of large and abnormal fluctuations.

The diagram can be obtained from the Morning Post office at $2 per copy.

ROAD CLOSED.

We are informed that Queen's Road East from Arsenal Street to the eastern extremity of the road is to be closed to motor traffic from to-morrow morning until further notice.

The road is under repair and certain sewerage works being carried out, with the result that it is impossible for cars to pass at one of two points.

Some time ago, the Kowloon Residents' Association suggested to the Government that wooden shades be provided round lamps where police are on point duty in Kowloon, as a protection from shades has now been installed on a lamp in Salisbury Road and should prove of distinct utility.

On Thursday last an entertainment was given by Mr. Charles Olive to the pupils of the Kowloon British School. The programme included character studies from Dickens—Sidney Carton, Uriah Heap, Scrooge, Bill Sykes, and Grandfather. Trent.
Mr. Olive also gave recitations from Rudyard Kipling and R. W.
Service, and several humorous items.

At Kuala Lumpur recently, General Malcolm addressed a meeting in connection with a revival of a Chinese platoon of the Volunteers. The Hon. Mr.
Choo Kia Fong, who presided, impressed upon the meeting the duty of supporting the Volunteer movement. He said it was hoped to raise two platoons. The General said the Penang, Singapore, Malacca, and Ipoh, all had Chinese units. It would be necessary at first to have British officers, but he hoped that the Chinese would soon take full responsibilities.

The Straits Settlements Police Force has lost one of its ablest and most experienced officers, as well as one of the most popular, by the death, which occurred in Malacca General Hospital on the 7th inst., of Inspector H.
Brereton. His death occurred with tragic suddenness from heart failure the day following his admission to Hospital. A typical product of that most famous body of men the Royal Irish Constabulary, whence he came to Singapore in October, 1902. Inspector Brereton had many friends in the Straits, among whom his death will be very keenly regretted.

The Shanghai Municipal Police have just lost an old and valued Chinese servant in the person of Ng Tak-shang, who was for many years a clerk at Central Station, says the N.O.D.N. He was formerly in the service of the Government at Hongkong and, upon being pensioned off, came to Shanghai and joined the Municipal Police. He had a great deal to do with staff detail and minor financial transactions and,
although he kept but few records, doing the work chiefly by mental note, he was rarely at fault and kept his little department in perfect order. He was a genial and popular member of the Chinese staff, and his death is much regretted by the police officials.

FRENCH REJOINDER TO MR. BALDWIN.

M. Poincare Outlines French Policy.

VERSAILLES TREATY MUST BE RESPECTED.

(Reuter's Service.)

Paris, July 15.
M. Poincare, in the course of an important speech at Senlis indirectly replying to Mr. Baldwin's statement, declared that France was willing to forget and even forgive the brutalities of Germany, but she wished to make the Treaty of Versailles respected. France since the Armistice had not ceased to make concessions. The chief question was France's security. The pact proposed by Mr. Lloyd George at Cannes in 1922 was practically useless and the replacement of the Reparations Committee by an International Financial Committee was not in the interests of France.
M. Poincare dwelt on Germany's failure to fulfil her obligations and declared that the violators of the Treaties rather than those demanding their observance should be asked to give an account of acts rendered inevitable by a rejection of what was right. France did not intend to surrender her pledges regarding the Ruhr. He had always been a faithful partisan of the Anglo-French Alliance and nobody would regret it more than he if any shadow should darken Anglo-French friendship. The British were as honest as the French; therefore, he felt assured that they would finally agree to French rights, but if any breach were made, other propositions must pass through the breach, again raising the question of the peace settlement, destroying the arrangement of Central Europe and probably leading to disaster and chaos.

Concessions Must Come from Britain.

Paris, July 15.
M. Poincare's speech was delivered in connection with the unveiling of a war memorial at Senlis. It did not give any hint of the likelihood of defection from oft-repeated policy, creating the impression that any concessions towards Franco-British unity forthcoming in the negotiations must come from Britain. M. Poincare declined to agree to the Treaty with a four years after its signature, being considered an antidiluvian fossil only fit for an archaeological museum. He denied that the occupation of the Ruhr was responsible for German economic sickness. On the contrary, Germany was wounded in any case have continued to slide down the abyss she herself had dug. M. Poincare adhered to the 1921 schedule of payments, except the "C" Bonds, which France would only utilise against Germany in proportion as her creditors demanded payment of French debts. He dwelt bitterly on the series of Supreme Council meetings always depriving French of rights whereon all had previously agreed.

ANGLO-AMERICAN POLO MATCHES.

New York, July 15.
The American Polo Association announces that the Hurlingham team, of which Captain F. E. Guest and Major F. W. Barrett will be

WATER METERS.

Opposed by Chinese Chamber.

The following letter has been sent to Mr. A. E. Wood, acting Secretary for Chinese Affairs, on behalf of the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce:—

Sir,—I have the honour under instructions from my Committee to state that at the request of the Hon. Mr. E. R. Hallifax a special general meeting of the members of this Chamber was held on the 11th instant when the Government's proposal to introduce a universal meter system in the rider mains was discussed at considerable length and the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

1. That this Chamber disapproves of the introduction of meter system in the rider mains;
in the opinion of this Chamber,
it will not have the desired effect of economising water, nor will it prevent waste.

2. That this Chamber strongly urges the Government to grant all applications for supplies from rail, officiating. Besides Mr.
F. H. Smith, chief moultier,
75 cents for excess consumption
present at the graveside. The numbers of wreaths testified to
the popularity the late Mr.
Moorsom enjoyed among the
community despite the shortness
of his sojourn here.

3. That the present system of free use of water in the rider mains be continued, the time allowance to be varied according to the amount of water in store. It is also suggested that in this connection as we are getting more rain this year, the present allowance of two hours a day may be extended to three hours.

I am directed to request you will be good enough to communicate our views to the Government.

Yours faithfully,
(Sgd.) IP LAN CHUEN,
Secretary, Chinese
General Chamber of Commerce.

LATE MR. MOORSOM.

A Prominent Rugby Player.

The late Mr. Edwin Goodwin Moorsom, who death is briefly reported elsewhere in this issue, underwent an operation for appendicitis in the French Convent Hospital on Friday, but complications set in from which he died at 11 p.m., on Saturday.

Mr. Moorsom, who was a cousin of Captain Bell Smith of the S.S.
"Honam" and of Mr. Frank N.
Smith (of Messrs. Frank Smith and Co.) arrived from England in May 1921 to join the latter's firm. He was an outstanding player in the Hongkong Rugby Club XV, last season and his place will be hard to fill.

Mr. Moorsom is survived by his parents and one brother who live in England, with whom much sympathy will be felt.

The funeral took place at Happy Valley Protestant Cemetery last evening, the Rev.
V. H. Copley Moyle, Senior Chaplain of St. John's Cathedral, officiating. Besides Mr.
F. H. Smith, chief moultier,
75 cents for excess consumption
present at the graveside. The
numbers of wreaths testified to
the popularity the late Mr.
Moorsom enjoyed among the
community despite the shortness
of his sojourn here.

MOTOR MEETING.

The motoring public is reminded of the meeting which is to take place to-morrow at 5.30 p.m. at the Hongkong Hotel, for the purpose of considering the holding of local motor car and cycle contests.

All interested in the matter are cordially invited to be present.

CANTON COMMUNISTS.

Demand for a National Congress.

"DOWN WITH IMPERIALIST POWER!"

We have received a lengthy printed statement of the Communist Party of China in the present political situation. It is dated from Canton and issued by the Executive Committee of the Party.

The statement deals at length with Northern politics, accusing the Japanese and American Governments of "Imperialism," and then goes on to state that the South-Western Generals, maintaining a big army suppressing the rights of the people and making fortunes for themselves, are not better than the Pih Yang militarists. It adds:—"We demand only a Government created by the Revolution. The people can never recognise a Government made and controlled by any Imperialist Power." The statement concludes:—

Our opinion is to hold a National Congress, composed of the delegates of the Chambers of Commerce, Agriculture, Unions, Workers Unions, Student Unions and other professional Unions of the whole nation in a suitable place. This Congress should be called by Kuomintang party, which has the historical mission of the National Revolution. If Kuomintang neglects the force of the people in this great moment cannot fulfill its historical task and still confines herself to the old method of calling a so-called peace conference of military chiefs, which can have for only result either new war between them or their combined suppression of the nation. The Chinese people cannot longer be inactive and stand aside. For example, the Democratic Committee of the Shanghai Chamber of Commerce should take up the responsibility in order to develop a new situation for saving the country and the people. The parliament in Peking being the tool of the feudal militarists and being not recognised as the representative of the people, the National Congress as true representative of whole the nation will take upon itself the task of drafting the constitution, unification of the country, and establishment of the new Chinese Government. Only this Congress is qualified to deny the right of any other organ to rule over China in the name of the Chinese people.

The new Government, born out of the National Congress, with real revolutionary nationalist force will crush the power of the militarists of whole China and also of the foreign imperialists behind them. This Government will not be a local Government but will really be qualified as a People's Government; it will not be a Government of cooperating militarists under the control of the foreign imperialists.

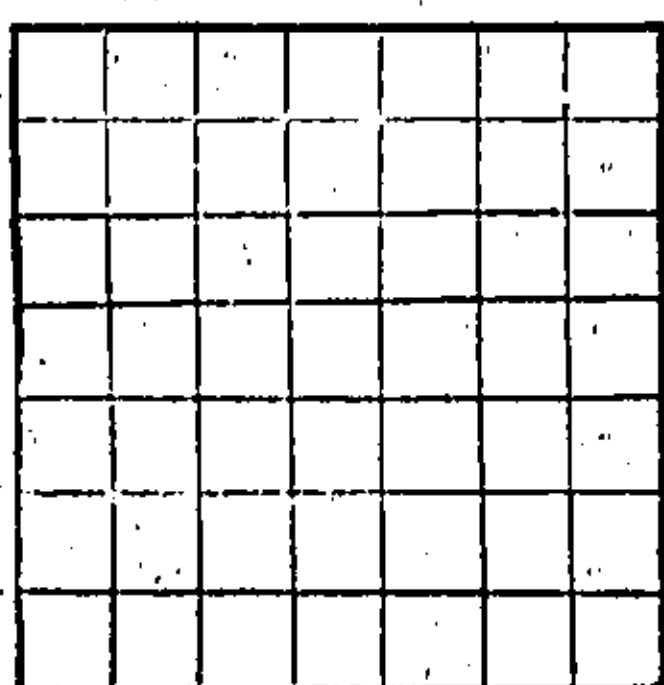

Brethren, this is the only way to save the Chinese from the two-fold suppression of the militarists and the foreign Powers.

Down with the Imperialist Powers, which utilise the militarists for exploitation of China!

Down with the militarists, who cooperate with the foreign Powers for suppression of the People!

National Revolutionists of whole China unite!

A PUZZLE A DAY.

The checker-board shown above contains 49 squares, 15 less than the usual board of 64 squares. The board shown above can be divided into six sections, which, when properly fitted together, will form three separate squares, instead of the large square of 49. Can you make the divisions?

Saturday's answer:

In the six-word sentence shown above, the three words "to get her" in the bottom line are formed from the word "together" in the top line.

PAKHOI NOTES.

Seizure of Ship Flying British Flag.

(Our Own Correspondent)

Pakhoi, July 10. Consulates are going cheap nowadays in Pakhoi, as not only is the British Consulate for sale, but now the German Consulate, having been handed back by the Chinese authorities to its original owner, is also in the market, as well as the furniture contained therein. Here is a good opportunity for some business firm looking for future trade expansion. When China settles down politically, and the long talked-of railway is constructed to that province, as it should be geographically. A small outlay now might reap a golden harvest in the happy days that are coming by and by.

Meanwhile the present political disturbances continue to inflict difficulties and loss on the trade of the country. A few days ago a steamer under the British flag, visiting this port, was seized for the conveyance of troops to Canton to assist Sun Yat-sen. Protests were made by the Commissioner of Customs and by the French Consul (there being no British Consul here now), and the vessel was finally released, the soldiers who had already embarked returning to shore to wait for some unfortunate steamer not protected by a foreign flag. It is understood that General Wong Meng-tong disclaimed responsibility for the seizure, and at once cancelled it on complaint being made to him. The responsibility was put upon the officer who is here enlisting recruits for Sun Yat-sen's army, who are now to be seen every morning and evening being assiduously drilled out on the plain.

An appointee of Sun Yat-sen's having arrived here recently with a complete office staff, to take over the Salt Administration Office, the existing official staff refused to hand over the office, and when force was threatened, they took refuge in a building attached to the French Consulate (the only Consulate not yet for sale), claiming the protection of the French flag. The work of the Salt Administration is therefore now being carried on there, while the newly-arrived staff are kicking their heels and having an easy time in the old building.

As a sign of progress in Pakhoi, it may be mentioned that an enterprising merchant has just opened a picture palace and is showing all the latest films.

KWANGTUNG FIGHTING.

Yunnanese Commanders Want Reward.

It is reported that the Divisional Commander, Yeung Chi-sang, who was detained by General Yeung Hsi-man, the chief Yunnanese commander, and sent back to Canton to be dealt with, has been released on his promising to leave at once for Hongkong and take no further part in military affairs. The forces under his control, as well as those commanded by the Regimental Commanders Fan and Cheong, who were also arrested, have been called back to Canton to avoid further trouble.

All the Yunnanese commanders at Shuiwan have jointly wired to Dr. Sun Yat-sen requesting that the promise of $200,000 for the capture of the city should be honoured; otherwise, they will not be responsible for further fighting. It is stated that only $1,500 has so far been paid.

As to the situation on the North River front, it is stated that Sheung Tak-sing's force, about a division strong, has been ordered by Wu Pei-fu to render assistance in attacking Sun's troops, and that the first batch, of about a regiment strong, has already arrived at Numbung. A battle with the Yunnanese is said to have taken place at Tai Kiu.

A report from the West River says that the Kwangsi troops have been driven back to Takking.

Messrs. Lammert Brothers have notified us that the auction sale of wines, spirits and malt liquors, advertised for to-day, has been postponed until Wednesday, the 18th, inst. at the same time and place. The stocks in question will be on view from to-morrow.

CANTON GOVERNMENT.

Dr. Sun's Status.

Interviewed by a correspondent of the Canton Daily News with respect to the status of Dr. Sun in Canton, Mr. C. C. Wu answered:—"The government is one in fact though not in name. The history and reason of the anomalous state of things are as follows:—

When Dr. Sun was in Shanghai last year, he suggested to the North that there should be a conference to disband troops and to effect union, that is, he announced his advocacy of peaceful unification. Then when Chen Chiung-ming was driven out of Canton by the various Cantonese, Yunnanese, and Kwangsi forces, Dr. Sun was repeatedly and urgently requested by the different commanders to come to Canton to take charge. He acceded to their request. In coming down he had three courses open to him, (1) to continue the government interrupted by Chen's coup d'état of last June, and resume the title of President, (2) to assume the title of Generalissimo, which, as every one knows, is a title given by law to the President. Dr. Sun did not adopt the first course because he thought that in so doing, people might think he was setting up a civil government, and thus making it more difficult to bring about unification by conference. The second course was unpracticable, because, in dealing with the military, he would have to issue orders. Thus he had no alternative but to adopt the third course. His present title is Generalissimo of the Military and Naval Forces, and the different Departments, such as Foreign Affairs, Interior, Finance, War, Reconstruction, are all departments of the Generalissimo's Headquarters. The administration has all the attributes and functions of a government, and the departments form, for all practical purposes the cabinet, without having the name. It is an anomalous state of things, caused by the exigencies of the situation on the one hand, and by Dr. Sun's consistency to his policy of peaceful unification on the other."

Questioned by the correspondent as to how long this state of affairs will last, Mr. Wu replied:—"It all depends upon the situation in the north."

"FOR WHICH I AM VERY THANKFUL."

As in the Far East, Malaria is responsible for many breakdowns of health in South Africa. Here is the experience of Mrs. G. J. Viljoen, a Dutch lady living at 93 Spruit street, Pretoria, Transvaal. "About eighteen months ago I was restored to perfect health, for which I am very thankful," Mrs. Viljoen says. "Prior to that time for almost two years I was a terrible sufferer. The upset of my health dates from an attack of malarial fever, the after-effects of which I could in no way remove. My blood seemed to become thin and poor; my head was nearly always dizzy, and I had splitting headaches. My digestive organs became disordered, and I suffered horribly after eating anything of a solid nature. I had pains all through my body, my heart was very weak, and I suffered from palpitation. I was in despair, and thought my days were numbered. I had medical advice, and various were the medicines and remedies prescribed for me, including sleeping powders, as I was tortured with insomnia. The healthful functions of Nature were upset (I speak of menstruation). Thank goodness, this has all been changed, and life is now what it used to be, and I am happy and healthy. This restoration I have no hesitation in saying is entirely due to a course of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

There is health in every dose of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People for sufferers from anaemia, debility, nervous weakness, indigestion, rheumatism, the after-effects of malaria and other fevers, skin disorders and the special aches and ills of ladies, because these Pills purify and enrich the blood, build up the nerves, revitalize the whole system. Chemists everywhere sell them, or post free, $1.50 per bottle, $8.00 for six bottles, from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60 Kings Road, Shanghai.

INTERRUPTED BATHE.

Coolies in a Reservoir.

Police officers paying a sudden visit to the laundry reservoir situated at the junction of Kennedy and Bowen Roads last night surprised a party of coolies enjoying a bath.

Five men were arrested and charged before M. J. R. Wood at the Police Court this morning, charged with exposing themselves. A certificate was produced from the Chief of the Sanitary Board to the effect that the waters of this reservoir, which were used for washing linen from the Government Civil Hospital, were not to be used for bathing purposes.

The hearing was remanded for the attendance of the Medical Officer of Health. The defendants were released on bail of $10 each.

CAMERA NEWS.

The Children's Hospital at Pittsburgh is shown on fire here. Two firemen were fatally injured.

Berlin now learns Maria Rosa, Princess of Hohenlohe-Bartenstein, is to marry Joseph Hugo Waldenmaier, a village schoolmaster. He is the son of a factory worker and formerly tutored the Princess.

A new portrait of Mary Pickford.

This new building surrounds a tiny log cabin, the old tailor shop of Andrew Johnson, 17th President of the United States, at Greenville. In presence of state and national celebrities Miss Margaret Patterson, great-granddaughter of the tailor president, presented the new building to the state on Memorial Day.

ENGLISH COLLEGE IN PRAGUE.

A Remarkable Experiment

Apart altogether from its famous university Prague possesses what in many ways must be regarded as a unique experiment in education in the form of what is described locally as an English college, says a writer in a Home paper. In many ways it answers to and carries on similar work to that performed by the Polytechnic Institutes in England.

The college was started as a private enterprise immediately upon the foundation of the Republic, and has received no financial assistance from the Government, though it is recognised as one of the educational centres of the city and one of the large Government buildings is loaned to it for its classes. Only English and English commercial subjects are taught, and the lectures are held daily from eight o'clock in the morning until nine at night. The first steps of instruction in English is given by Bohemian teachers who are familiar with English, and from this commencement the students proceed up to the most advanced English subjects and literature, and a week's inspection and testing of the knowledge the students possessed left a most favourable impression upon me in fact, an impression little sort of amazement at the keenness and progress manifest. Students of both sexes and all ages attend the lectures and the attendance registers show how regularly they attend.

It is an inspiring sight to an Englishman, hundreds of miles from home, in a foreign country, to visit one of these classes. Over four thousand students have passed through the college since it was started, and at present about 1,800 are in daily attendance. The lecturers for all classes, except the most elementary ones, are experienced English teachers properly trained and qualified, many of them being graduate of the English universities. So successful has this experiment proved in Prague that plans are being formed, to open next autumn a number of similar colleges throughout Czechoslovakia, and there can be little doubt but that these will prove equally successful.

MAN'S FRIEND.

Bull Terriers in the East.

The "White Gladiator" thrives in the tropics, and in North Borneo as well as anywhere. I think at the present time they are the most popular dogs in the country—and yet there is only one man enterprising enough to breed them, writes Major Owen Rutter in the Bull Terrier Club Annual. He is a Dutch planter, Mr. C. L. Metelkamp, who has had a little colony of them for many years. They are getting in-bred now and the kennel needs new blood, but it is always a pleasure to visit Mr. Metelkamp's coconut-estate and to have the pack to come out to greet you, boisterous, joyful and leaping excitedly upon you, with that abandon of affection which, when they know you, bull-terriers give.

Mr. Metelkamp is a great hunter and keeps his pack for hunting purposes. The walls of his bungalow are studied with heads of boars, stags and wild cattle, as a seaborne with shells, and the presence of most of them is due to the hunting powers of his bull-terriers, whom he has carefully trained. In the manner of the native hunting dog, they will track a boar or great dun-coloured bull tembadau through the jungle, until they come up with him and hold him at bay, yelping and barking round him till the amazed brute knows not which way to turn and the huntsman can come up and drop him with a careful shot. They are keen and great of heart and more than one of them bears the scars of a maddened boar's tusk to this day. There have been several famous bull-terriers in Borneo.

Like most of his kind in Borneo he loves water—a praiseworthy trait, yet one to be discouraged in the tropics, where lurking crocodiles abound in every river waiting to snap up any tasty morsel that comes their way.

The exile in the lonely outstations or estates in the wilds knows, better than those at home (for his need is greater), how splendid a friend a dog can be. None is better, few as good, as a bull-terrier and my advice to everyone going East would be—take with you a bull-terrier. It may be a nuisance to get him there but it will be worth all your trouble in the end.

"QUEEN OF THE PACIFIC."

Empress of Canada Chosen for Next Cruise-de-Luxe.

The finest and biggest ship on the Pacific, and what is said to be the largest passenger vessel that has ever gone through the Suez Canal, will be embarking early next year on the greatest tour that has ever circumnavigated the globe. The magnificent Canadian Pacific Liner, Empress of Canada, the Queen of the Empress ships on the Pacific, has been chosen for the great cruise-de-luxe which will set sail from New York on January, 30, 1924, carrying a maximum accommodation of 500 first class passengers on a tour of the world's beauty spots. She is due to arrive in Shanghai on April 20, and after visiting Japan and ports will complete her sea journey at Vancouver on May 24. From that port a first-class railway ticket will be granted for transportation to the passenger's starting point. Free first-class transportation will be granted from any place in the world to the starting point at New York. Fares for the entire trip, including sea, rail, and hotel accommodation run from Gold $1,600 to $9,750.

Canadian Pacific representatives will be on board during the cruise to conduct parties to the numerous places of interest which will be passed en route.

The vessel will go direct from New York to Europe, and thence through the Suez Canal to "near" and Far Eastern ports, on to Japan and returning to British Columbia via the Hawaiian Islands, calling for the first time in its history at the port of Hilo, there giving passengers an opportunity of seeing one of the world's great sights, the largest active volcano in existence, that of Kilauea.

The following is the itinerary: New York, Madeira, Gibraltar, Algiers, Monaco, Naples, Port Said, Suez, Bombay, Colombo, Calcutta, Rangoon, Singapore, Batavia, Sourabaya, Manila, Hongkong, Shanghai, Kobe, Yokohama, Honolulu, Hilo, Victoria and Vancouver.—P.

NICOLA.

Mirth and Magic at the Star.

Nicola, the magician and illusionist, opened his season at Kowloon with a packed house at the Star Theatre on Saturday night. It was an excellent show. For two hours or more Nicola went rapidly through a succession of tricks, more and more mystifying as the entertainment progressed. An interesting novelty in his performance was his impersonation of the famous conjurors of other lands. In the Argentine, for example, magic is combined with burlesque. In this act Nicola had an opportunity of showing his abilities as a comedian as well as a magician, and the laughs which went up from the audience were a sure testimony to his success. Nicola introduced a number of new illusions, and the certainly succeeded in keeping the house in wonderment. What helped to make the performance really go was not only the excellent tricks presented but the way in which they were staged. In most illusions Nicola was assisted by a funny-man, whose antics kept everybody in good spirits the whole time. Included in Nicola's company are two very delightful dancers, whose turns provided a pleasing interlude. Nicola numbers among his accomplishments the art of freeing himself from handcuffs, manacles, legions, strait jackets, etc. On Saturday night he allowed members of the audience to come up on the stage. He was handcuffed and shackles were put on his ankles. He went in a cabinet and in barely a matter of seconds he was in view again, with both in his hands, and unlocked. Nicola announced that he is going to give a public demonstration of his skill in this direction during the course of his visit. He is going to be placed in a strait jacket and hauled up the scaffolding of one the buildings now in course of construction, from which position he will free himself in full view of everybody. Further particulars of this will probably be announced later.

"TAI SANG" IN COLLISION.

Damage Very Slight.

The Indo-China Steam Navigation Company's Tai Sang (Captain Grant), which arrived in port from Canton this morning, reports that, as a result of her steering gear being carried away, she collided with the s.s. Ajay at five minutes past eleven on Saturday morning. The forward plates above the shearstrake were slightly damaged. It also appears that both vessels went ashore or the mud. Both got off, however, without difficulty.

A Telegraph reporter who called at the office of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson and Co., this morning was informed that the damage sustained was practically negligible and there will be no necessity for the Tai Sang to go into dock.

HONGKONG TAXIS.

First Batch Expected Here Soon.

We are informed that the first batch of fifteen taxis have now been shipped to Hongkong in connection with the service which is to be run by the Hongkong and Kowloon Taxis company. These are aboard the Mishima Maru and the Africa, and the first consignment is expected to arrive here on August 15th. Fifteen more of these taxis left the factory this week and will now be ready for shipment.

There has been some delay in the despatching of the taxis, owing to shipping changes. The first batch was to have been shipped from Marseilles by the s.s. Java on June 14th, but it was later intimated that the vessel was not touching at that port.

The Company hopes to commence the taxi service here towards the latter part of September.

CLEVER PHOTOGRAPHY.

In Coronet's Drama of the Sea.

There is some wonderful photography in the fine drama of the sea, "Partners of the Tide," which is the attraction at the Coronet commencing to-day. A fight for life between two divers beneath the surface of the waves is an excellent example of the cameraman's art. Two shipwreck scenes form other thrills in this exciting picture. Those who appreciate a good melodrama of the sea will find "Partners of the Tide" a production hard to bat. It is a tale of two men in love with the same girl, and the fastidious tricks of the one outwit his rival provide some of the most thrilling moments in the story. The film, which is in scene parts, is a screen adaptation from the well-known novel by Joseph C. Lincoln. The leading parts are taken by Daisy Robinson, Jack Perrin and Gordon Mullen.
